

February 18, 2014

To AT&T Suppliers:

At AT&T, our mission is to connect people with their world, everywhere they live and work, and do it better than anyone else.

Our suppliers help us succeed by providing products and services that bring competitive advantage through innovation, performance, quality, and cost efficiency. As important as those attributes are, how they are delivered is just as important. An unwavering commitment to integrity and ethics, diversity, and sustainable practices is a foundation for the long term success of our company and our supply chain.

I invite you to learn more about AT&T's approach to citizenship and sustainability (click here). I also invite you to review AT&T's Principles of Conduct for Suppliers (click here). These principles help define what it means to do business the right way. We expect suppliers to observe these principles in their dealings with AT&T and support their extension further into the supply chain.

At AT&T, citizenship and sustainability are embedded in our corporate culture. It helps define how we do business with our suppliers. I appreciate your continued commitment and look forward to working together to strengthen our shared approach to sustainable business practices.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Tim Harden". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first name "Tim" and last name "Harden" clearly legible.

Tim Harden
President, AT&T Supply Chain and Fleet Operations